IMPORTANT NOTE: when running the code on raspberry pi, make sure to run the file named “web_server.py”; the other files get imported and used by that main file.

And to access the ward view, make sure to click the links found in the output command prompt.